The College of Veterinary Medicine & Biomedical Sciences (CVM) at Texas A&M University invites applications/nominations for the position of Director of Recruitment and Student Services. This position is a tenure or clinical track associate, or full professor position. The successful candidate will become part of the Professional Programs group within the Dean’s Office, and will have a joint appointment in one of the five departments within the College, depending on the individual’s area of interest and expertise. Qualifications for the position include a DVM/VMD or equivalent veterinary degree from an AVMA-accredited university and eligibility for licensure in the state of Texas. The successful candidate will articulate a vision for recruiting a diverse and culturally competent student population and a plan for career counseling that supports the many broad career options available to DVM graduates. The candidate should have a demonstrated interest and/or expertise in the professional development and education of veterinary students or other professional students. A record of collegiality within a department and college is essential. Board certification and/or advanced degrees will be considered a positive factor.

Responsibilities of this position are focused on recruiting qualified, diverse, culturally competent students into the DVM program and coordinating mentorship and career counseling to facilitate student transitions into the DVM program and subsequently into a successful career as a veterinary professional. Additionally, the individual will teach in the professional skills portion of the curriculum, provide student mentoring, guidance of student clubs and organizations, support of student leadership positions and support of student well-being. The successful candidate will have a role in important student events and student related committees such as orientation, white coat ceremony, parents’ day, graduation and the student-faculty liaison committee. The individual will also work in tandem with the DVM Selections Committee to provide aid in selection of DVM students.

A complete job description may be found at this link: http://vetmed.tamu.edu/files/dcvm/Director_of_Recruitment_and_Student_Services.pdf

Texas A&M University is the oldest public institution of higher education in Texas and one of the nation’s largest and most dynamic universities. More than 60,000 students are enrolled in the University’s 10 academic colleges with approximately 9,000 pursuing graduate or professional degrees. Texas A&M University is a major research university with a growing international focus, and outstanding public and private support.

Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled. Applicants should submit a letter of intent including, a statement of professional interests and career goals, a current curriculum vitae, and names and contact information of three professional references to: Ms. Linda Fillip (lfilip@cvm.tamu.edu) or Texas A&M University, College of Texas A&M University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer/Educator fully committed to maintaining diversity among our personnel in order to strengthen the success of our mission.