

REQUEST TO REGISTER FOR A 285/485 DIRECTED STUDIES COURSE

A directed studies course is a mechanism for students to customize their learning experience through faculty-led, in-depth study of a topic. Activities may include guided readings and discussions of primary literature or learning animal handling and/or laboratory techniques that are not directly applied to a research project.

Student Name: _____ UIN: _____ Phone: _____

TAMU Email: _____ Classification: _____ Major: _____

Year: _____

Semester: Fall _____ Spring _____ Summer I _____ Summer II _____ 10 Week _____

Describe the topic and learning outcomes of this course:

Describe the reading assignments and written work for this class, and the basis upon which a grade will be determined.

Course prefix: _____ (BIMS, VIBS, VTPB, VTPP, VLCS, VSCS)

Course number: _____ (U1/U2 take 285 and U3/U4 take 485)

Credit hours: _____ Grade or S/U: _____

Instructor name (printed): _____

Instructor signature: _____ Date: _____

Student Acknowledgement: _____
Signature Date

Approved by Biomedical Sciences (Y/N) _____ Date: _____ Initials: _____