Description: Alliance Animal Health is a partnership organization founded in 2017. The approach was to create a true partnership model that would help veterinarians by removing the stress of managing the business side of the practice and giving them the benefits of being part of a larger organization while retaining the local culture. This new model is dedicated to providing veterinarians the freedom of medical autonomy and the commitment to keeping the practice's unique culture. Our culture is knowing your culture. We strive to give each practice an edge but maintain its distinctive vibe. With over 200 practices across 28 states including small animal, mixed, exotics, and feline only to ER, specialty, and urgent care, Alliance seeks to provide opportunities as unique as the individuals seeking them.

Description: At AmeriVet, we're not your typical corporate veterinary partner. With us, it's not about taking over and dominating a veterinary practice. It's about collaborating and becoming true partners with veterinarians who own practices. We do this by supporting the business side of your practice. Our approach is not one-size-fits-all, so we customize the level of support we offer based on your practice's individual needs. AmeriVet offers you support in operations, marketing, recruitment, payroll, human resources, benefits administration, and training. Together, we'll work to make your practice run more efficiently, effectively, and profitably.

Description: We're a privately owned oasis amongst several corporate clinics. We're fear-free certified, which we feel is very beneficial for students and new graduates to see and learn. We have a DVM who performs our soft tissue surgeries all day on Mondays. They are very talented and excited to teach others. This would provide ample time for a new graduate or a 4th-year student to have some hands-on experience in surgery and anesthesia. We have in-house IDEXX blood work, digital radiographs, and ultrasound—and also utilize a mobile veterinary ultrasonography company regularly. So, there's also opportunity to gain experience with imaging. We have a wide variety of clientele, which aids in learning how to work up and treat conditions that best cater to the client and patient. Regardless, we always practice excellent medicine to their best of our ability and can utilize surrounding specialists in the neighborhood when needed.
