

VETERINARY MEDICAL PARK

STUDENT EMPLOYMENT APPLICATION

The Aviary Health Complex and other facilities at Veterinary Medical Park house birds: psittacine and passerines. On a semester by semester basis, student employment opportunities become available. Students are hired to work together as a team caring for the birds. Training is provided.

STUDENT TECHNICIAN

Job Summary - In addition to aviary student caretaker activities, the student will work closely with board certified avian veterinarians to handle health issues and administer medications to the birds at the aviary.

Learning Outcomes

- 1) Proper restraint of birds
- 2) Administration of medicine and life support fluids (injectable, oral)
- 3) Enhance communication skills in relaying medical information

Education - Preferred majors in Veterinary Science.

Responsibilities – The employee is responsible for caretaking, clear communications with faculty, staff and team members; administering medication under the directive of a veterinarian and documentation of

Please complete 1) the application below and submit with 2) a resumé and 3) the course schedule for semester that you plan to start working at the aviary to the Aviary Manager, Debra Turner, at DDTurner@cvm.tamu.edu.

Applicant's Name	<input type="text"/>	Phone	<input type="text"/>
Major	<input type="text"/>	Email	<input type="text"/>
Graduation Date	<input type="text"/>
Work Study Certificate (yes/no)	<input type="text"/>

Why are you interested in this position?

What skills would you bring to this position?